

ABC Financial and Debt Management Programme

Do you live in the ABC area? Would you like to know a bit more about how to manage your money during these difficult times?

Invite:

Join one or all of the free, independent information sessions being delivered in your area by a professional adviser. These sessions are part of the ABC council funded project to support those in the ABC area to manage money and debt in the cost of living crisis. The sessions are available to anyone living in the ABC council area.

Sessions:

We are offering sessions in the following topics:

1: Budgeting and Spending –covering budgeting and making the most of your money.

2: Borrowing, Credit Scores and Savings - covering borrowing, accessing credit and better credit options.

3: Dealing with Debt and Mental Well-Being - covering getting debt advice, money worries and mental well-being.

Note: Further information about session content will be provided at booking.

Resources & Supports:

You will receive a free information resource, which will include useful contacts, links and templates including a Budget Planner and Spending Diary. You will also have the option of participating in a free, confidential 1-1 money or debt management advice or mentoring session. Sim cards can be provided for participants that do not have access to the internet.
